The Probleton Movement-Speculation Remoths the Comine Convention-Execution Discontinuous the Discontinuous Remoths forced Inspecial schemen to the Discontinuous Ralling Ralling Rosember 1.—In a number of counties meetings have been held and delegates chosen to the State Prohibition Convention, which will be held at Greensboro' on the 11th instant. Some persons affect to laugh at the movement, declaring that prohibition is a dead issue. Qthers say there is more vitality in the matter than is generally known. Such men as Dr. D. W. C. Benbow, of Greensboro', are working earnestly and continually for prohibition.

In 1881 in the famous prohibition prohibition.

In 1881, in the famous prohibition campaign, Governor Jarvis favored that side. It is not known how Governor Scales will view the matter. He is a very temperate man, and perhaps leans that way, but he is not apt to take any part in the campaign. Many politicians will keep out of such warfare. Others, with inhorent fondness for combat, will enter into it with avidity. Some persons claim that Republicans who four years ago loudly championed the anti-prohibition side will this time take the other side. Very strange things develop in a day or a week, and hence no man can predict with certainty the result of the Convention at Greensboro'.

At Statesville Allison Speaks was last week convicted of murder and last week convicted of murder and sentenced to death. His counsel made a motion for a new trial, which was overruled. Judge Montgomery sentenced him to be hanged Wednesday the 30th day of December. His counsel took an appeal, which operates as a stay of proceedings. A transcript of the record could not be gotten to the Supreme Court in time for the case to be heard at this term. It accordingly goes heard at this term. It accordingly goes over to the spring term. Speaks was removed to jail to await the decision. He received his death-sentence without betraying any emotion. This was the first sentence of death Judge Montgomery has pronounced.

Near Dallas, Gaston county, a great outrage occurred. The dwelling of Mrs. White, a widow, was totally developed to the work of the state of the stroyed by fire. It was the work of an incendiary. A few minutes after it began to burn, one of the men sleeping in the house was awakened by a ise, seized a gun and went to the door, and saw a man running away from the house. The parties who fired the house stole $500 in cash and got away with it. The United States Circuit Court for the Eastern district of North Carolina convened in this city this morning, Judge A. S. Seymour presiding. United States District-Attorney Fab. H. Busbee. Assistant-District-Attorney R. B. Peebles, Clerk N. J. Riddick, and Marshal J. B. Hill are present. The grand jury was drawn and several cases for violations of the internal-revenue laws were disposed of.

Governor Scales returned from Henderson to-day quite indisposed. He is suffering from a severe cold. The internal-revenue collections in this district for November were $36,000. During November forty-six licenses were issued to commercial travellers. There were immense breaks of tobacco at Henderson to-day. A handsome new warehouse was opened. To-morrow, at Warrenton, Arring-ton's warehouse, said to be the largest in the State, will be opened with much

At the opening of the Centennial Graded School to-day five hundred and eighty-eight pupils were present.

This afternoon Raleigh's new club, the Capital, was thrown open to the public. There was a brilliant gathering of public men and many ladies. The building is greatly admired.
